THE INDIAN WAR OVER.

General Bacon and Command Return to Walker.

REDSKINS BADLY WHIPPED.

Troops Will Be Held In Readiness For Action Awhile.

NO GENERAL UPRISING FEARED.

According to Dispatches Received at Washington No More Than Thirty Indians Were Engaged In the Outbreak—White Flag Displayed.

St. Paul, Oct. 8.—Lieutenant Colonel S. D. Sturgis, assistant adjutant general, received a telegram from General Bacon, dated Oct. 5, giving a report of the fight of that day with a list of casualties, agreeing in all particulars with the list heretofore carried in these dispatches.

Another telegram from Lieutenant Colonel Harbach came during the day announcing that before he could leave Walker and while he was embarking his troops, a steamer brought in word that General Bacon and his men were coming back and would soon reach Walker.

For that reason Lieutenant Colonel Harbach held his troops at Walker. No later word has been received at the army headquarters.

A later telegram from General Bacon announces his arrival at Walker and said he would hold his own and Colonel Harbach's troops there for the present, and expressed the belief that the Indians were badly whipped.

ORIGIN OF THE ROW.

A Murders and Insolent Red Caused the Uprising at Leech Lake.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 8.—About one year ago a white man was arrested for selling liquor to the Indians. As a witness the United States marshals arrested Min-Jon-Dah, a Pillager Indian of Bear Island, who some years ago gained considerable notoriety by killing Chief Hole-in-the-Day. He is a bad and insolent Indian, having killed seven of his own tribe. The marshal took him to Duluth, where the trial was held, promising him transportation from Walker to Duluth to return, with all expenses.

When the trial was over Min-Jon-Dah, it is said, had to walk from Duluth to Walker, a distance of 190 miles, without money or food, and arrived at Walker nearly starved to death. He swore before his tribe that he would never recognize a warrant or papers of any kind served by the United States marshals.

When the fall term of court sat at Duluth, Min-Jon-Dah and another luck of his tribe were wanted at Duluth to give testimony in another case similar to that of last fall. The marshals came and arrested the two Indians and put them in jail. During their incarceration there was intense excitement among the Indians and many threats of a rescue were freely made by the Indians.

Finally 20 of the bucks, during the night of Sept. 8, made a raid on the jail at Walker, and released the two prisoners. The two Indians then made their escape to Bear Island and have been there ever since, agitating the Indians to rebellion, and this has resulted in the present trouble.

Reassuring Reports.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Reports received by the officials of the war and the interior departments from the Indian outbreak are of a reassuring character, and they now feel that the uprising may be regarded as over. General Bacon, who has charge of affairs in the department of which he is in command, will remain at Walker for the present, and this, it is hoped, will have a quieting effect on the citizens of the surrounding country, who have felt that they were in danger from the Redskins. Steps will be taken to have an investigation made with a view to fixing the responsibility among the Indians for their stand against the government.

The following is General Bacon's latest dispatch:
"Walker, Minn., via Brainerd, Oct.
8.—Arrived here at noon with my detachment in good condition, the killed and badly wounded having been shipped to Fort Snelling.

"The Indians have been badly whipped and left the country adjacent to the fight. En route here other Chippewa bands displayed white flags along the lake shore. Much talk here of general Indian outbreak.

"Will ascertain facts and report later. Find Colonel Harbach at this place with 200 men, Third Infantry.

Will remain myself and keep troops here awaiting developments.

"Regret exaggerated rumors published resulting from my inability to communicate. Have been in no danger of massacre and need no reinforcements.
Colonel Harbach's coming was good in sending out boats."

No General Uprising Feared.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 8.—The following reassuring dispatch was received by Indian Commissioner Jones from Gus H. Beaufeu, a well known Chippewa Indian, who has transacted considerable business for the band in Washington:

"Not more than 25 or 30 Indians engaged in the outbreak. Chiefs Gay-wuche Waybinung and Macheguhbow, both of Bear Island and Wahbunnee of Leech Lake village, are doing all in their power to suppress the outbreak. Chief Flatmouth arrived at Leech Lake village with a large number of followers and is strongly opposing the outbreak. Indians coming into Leech Lake rapidly and registering their names in overseer's office with the intention of remaining at the village until trouble has subsided. White Earth, Red Lake and Mille Lac Indians not affected. Think there will be no general uprising."

About the Killed.

Milwaukee, Oct. 8.—Of the killed in the Indian fight at Leech Lake, Daniel F. Schwalenstocker was enlisted at West Superior by Captain Cook in June. Albert Ziebell, a resident of Greenbush, enlisted at Milwaukee in July. Of the wounded, Richard Bauscher enlisted at West Superior in June and E. Antonelli at Hurley.

Regulars at Walker.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 8.—There are 12 Walker now 215 regulars under command of Colonel Harbach, and they will be held here until trouble breaks out again. The boat Flora, which left shortly before daylight to bring General Bacon's command back, has not yet been heard from, although it has been gone nearly ten hours.

The Dead Brought In.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 8.—The steamer Flora has arrived here, bringing in the killed and wounded. Following is a complete list of those killed in Wednesday's engagement: Major Melville Wilkinson, Sergeant William Butler, Privates Edward Lowe, John Olmstead, John Swallenstocker and Alfred Ziebell.
Twenty were wounded.

What a Big Chief Says.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 8.—Chief Gay-Gwa-Che-Way-Bin-Ningi of Bear Island, who has been one of the most active in endeavoring to repress the rebellion, assured Lieutenant Humphrey that everything would be amicably settled in the next 24 hours, and that his tribe was anxious for peace.

Chinese Coward.

Pekin, Oct. 8.—A detachment of 98 Russian soldiers, with two seven-pounders, 25 British marines and 30 German marines arrived here and marched through the city to the quarters assigned to them. They will protect the legations of Russia, Great Britain and Germany. Large crowds witnessed the arrival of the European reinforcements, but there was no extraordinary incident. The Chinese appeared to be cowed.

Negotiations Deferred.

London, Oct. 8.—A dispatch from Lisbon, Portugal, says the Delagoa Bay negotiations have been deferred until 1899, owing to the United States insisting upon Portugal's strict observance of the agreement that neither the railroad, the harbor, nor public lands at Loosenso Marquese be alienated until the Berne Award is completed.

Big Fire at Hankow.

Shanghai, Oct. 8.—Details from Hankow, at the mouth of one of the tributaries of the Yang-Tse-Kiang, show that the fire which broke out there on Sunday last destroyed 10,000 houses, devastated about two miles of built up ground and did a damage to the extent of from 5,000,000 to 8,000,000 taels.

Redskins and Filipinos.

Paris, Oct. 8.—La Liberte, referring to the Indian outbreak in Minnesota, contrasts editorially the general treatment of the redskins and the Spanish treatment of the natives of the Philippines, expressing the conviction that another contrast must prove unfavorable to the federal authorities.

Turkish Troops Will Leave.

Crete, Oct. 8.—Ismail Bey, civil governor of the island of Crete, informed the Mussulman leaders that the sultan will withdraw the Turkish troops from Crete in accordance with the demand with the powers.

Mr. Smith at Topeka.

Topeka, Oct. 8.—Postmaster General Smith arrived here from Omaha and addressed a large crowd at Hamilton hall in the evening. Mr. Smith is accompanied by his wife and private secretary. Mr. Smith's address was in defense of the present administration.

SITE FOR THE TROOPS.

Camp For Our Soldiers Selected at Havana.

IT IS NEAR MORRO CASTLE.

Rear Admiral Sampson Has Fully Recovered His Health.

FRICTION AMONG THE OFFICIALS.

By a Decree of the Civil Governor the Slaughter House Income Is Transferred From the Municipal Treasury to the Spanish Bank.

Havana, Oct. 8.—The site selected for the camp of the American troops of occupation is situated east of Morro castle between Cabanas and Cojimar on a bluff overlooking the sea. This spot is exceedingly cool and healthy.

Rear Admiral Sampson, who has been slightly indisposed during the last few days, has fully recovered his health.

An important decree of the civil governor was published. It is in the nature of an order to the mayor to no longer count upon the slaughter house income, which exceeds $2,000 a day, and which, though belonging to the Spanish bank as collateral for loans, had been by decree of June 4 made over to the municipal treasury in order that the municipal authorities might relieve the urgent needs of the population.

The decree returns this income to the rightful owner, the Spanish bank, thus depriving the municipality of its richest source of income.

The civil governor is at swords points with the municipal authorities.
The former, a few days ago, ordered the city to be divided into zones for the purpose of increasing the tariff of cab fares for the benefit of the cab companies and livery stables simultaneously.

The mayor, in whose province such affairs are, published an open disapproval of the regulation, warning the public against paying the new rates and advising people only to pay the old fares, in which they would be protected by the law. In consequence the governor withdrew and revoked the order governing the cab regulations.

The McIntyre Trial.

Denver, Oct. 8.—Upon the assembling of the court marital in the case of Chaplain McIntyre of the battleship Oregon, the prosecution called Mr. Lee Ulery of Franklin, Ills., superintendent of construction of the Denver mint, to give his testimony in rebuttal. Attorneys for the defense went on record as objecting to the testimony offered.
Mr. Ulery said that on Aug. 6 he had a conversation with Chaplain McIntyre at their hotel. The chaplain told of the trip of the Oregon around Cape Horn and of the naval battle of July 3. Witness said the chaplain asserted that when the battle began Admiral Sampson with the flagship New York was 15 miles away and that when the Oregon was going into the battle she passed the Iowa going to the rear. The chaplain said, the witness declared, "that the 'Fighting Bob' Evans was a coward and that Admiral Schley showed the white feather."

Object to Colored Troops.

Knoxville, Oct. 8.—The Sixth Virginia has followed the Second Ohio to its new camp ground and is preparing to pitch tents on the hillside immediately adjoining the Ohio camp. This has brought out a storm of protest from the white soldiers, who thought by their recent change of camps to get away from the colored soldiers.
Colonel Kuert and his officers have made a formal protest to both Generals McKee and Rosser, pointing out that the proximity of the camps would have a tendency to breed disease.

Cuban Troops Starving.

Santiago, Cuba, Oct. 8.—The question of issuing rations to the soldiers in the vicinity of Santiago will soon require to be disposed of by the government.
The condition of these troops at present is horrible, and unless something is done to alleviate their condition great suffering and crime must result.
At present the commissariat is not allowed to distribute rations to Cuban soldiers.

Uncle Sam May Pay the Debt.

Paris, Oct. 8.—Instances are cited here showing that the United States' purpose is expansion. Spain is alleged to be beginning to realize this, and it is said that she will finally agree to give up Manila and the island of Luzon, on condition that the United States assumes the Philippine debt.

amounting to $40,000,000, and accord privileges to Spanish trade.

Work on the Spanish Cruisers.

Playa del Este, Cuba, Oct. 8.—The stern compartments of the raised Spanish cruiser Maria Teresa are now being pumped out. The cruiser's starboard engine has been jacked up and moved a half turn. Naval Constructor Hobson is about to leave the Teresa for the Vizcaya. The expedition to raise the Cristobal Colon will start at once.

Generals Discharged From Service.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The war department has issued the long expected order for the honorable discharge from the volunteer service of the United States of three major generals and two brigadier generals of volunteers.
This heavy reduction was made necessary by the fact that the volunteer army itself has already been reduced by fully 50 per cent, and there is consequently no duty remaining for these officers to discharge. Major generals discharged: John G. Copfinger, Oct.
30, 1898; Jacob F. Kent, Nov. 30, 1898.
21, 1898; Hamilton S. Hawkins, Nov.

Three Witnesses Examined.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Three witnesses were before the war investigating commission. General Greene, who participated in the battle of Manila; Colonel Lee, chief quartermaster at Camp Thomas, and Major Hersey, who was for a time in command of the Roosevelt Rough Riders. Each admitted the possibility of individual cases of suffering and discomfort, but all said that the vast majority of complaints were exaggerated if not without foundation.
They agreed in saying that no army was ever so abundantly and luxuriously supplied as was the American army in the Spanish war.

Three New Corps Organized.

Washington, Oct. 8.—A general order has been issued organizing new army corps and designating various points where the troops shall be stationed. The Third, Fifth and Sixth corps are discontinued; the First, Second and Fourth corps reorganized. They are to be commanded respectively by Major Generals Breckinridge, Graham and Wheeler. The headquarters of each corps will be: First corps, Macon, Ga.; Second corps, Augusta, Ga.; Fourth corps, Huntsville, Ala.

Spain Reinforcing Iloilo Garrison.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Admiral Dewey has cabled the navy department that he has been advised that a number of Spanish troops have arrived at Singapore bound for the Philippines to reinforce the Spanish garrison at Iloilo on the island of Pana. The weight of opinion here is that this action is permissible and does not constitute a breach of the terms of the protocol.

General Lee Ordered to Havana.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Major General Fitzhugh Lee received an order from the war department directing him to move his command from Jacksonville, Fla., to Savannah, and get it in readiness to embark for Havana by the last of this month. General Lee left for Savannah to make preliminary arrangements to carry his orders into effect.

Dr. Walker Defends Himself.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Dr. William W.
Walker, the physician who attended Lieutenant Lafferty in his last illness at Camp Wikoff, has sent an explanation of his connection with the case to the war investigating commission.
He claims everything possible was done for the comfort of the unfortunate young man.

Insanity Caused by Illness.

St. Louis, Oct. 8.—Captain Duncan, senior captain of the Seventh immunes, is thought to have come from Lexington, Ky., to St. Louis, while mentally deranged. He has been ill and was a patient at St. Joseph's hospital at Lexington, near where the regiment is in camp.

McCoy-Maher Bill.

New York, Oct. 8.—Kid McCoy and Peter Maher were matched to meet in a 25 round contest before the Greater New York Athletic club Dec. 5 for a purse of $10,000 and a division of the gross gate receipts. Frank Moran, former manager of John L. Sullivan, was agreed upon as holder of the forfeit.

Governor Taylor's Condition.

Nashville, Oct. 8.—The condition of Governor Robert L. Taylor, who is very ill at his home in Johnson City, is improved. His physicians have ordered absolute rest and quiet for him, and his friends are quite hopeful of his recovery.

Cunard Liner Disabled.

Queenstown, Oct. 8.—The Cunard line steamer Lucania, which left New York on Oct. 1 for Liverpool by way of this port, was sighted off Brow Head, in a disabled condition.

Ted Stane's Mount Wins.

London, Oct. 8.—Mr. C. F. Young's Queen Louise, ridden by Ted Stane, won the Feddington handicap of £5 sovereigns at Kempton Park.

GEORGE SAXTON SHOT.

Brother of Mrs. McKinley Killed at Canton.

DIVORCED WOMAN ARRESTED

Sensational Sequel to the Saxton-George Damage Suit, Which Has Been Aired in the Ohio Courts For Some Years.

Canton, O., Oct. 8.—George D. Sax-ton, a brother of Mrs. William Mc-Kinley, was shot dead at 6:10 p. m.

He was in front of the residence of Mrs. Eva B. Althouse, widow of the late George Althouse, 319 Lincoln avenue, where he is presumed to have gone to make a call. Five shots were fired, three of which entered his body, and Mrs. Anna C. George has been placed under arrest on suspicion of the murder.

Saxton was unconscious when neighbors arrived to investigate the cause of the shooting, and was dead when the physicians and officers arrived, the former having expressed the opinion that death was instantaneous. Three bullets entered the vital spots.

His position indicated that he had been on the step to the Althouse residence when the shots were fired. The body was taken to an undertaking room and placed on charge of coroner.

Immediately after the autopsy it was taken to the home of M. C. Barber, a brother-in-law, where Saxton, who was unmarried, made his home.

Mr. Saxton left the Barber home about 6 p. m. riding his bicycle, and this was the last seen of him by his friends.

The Althouse home was dark and locked and the neighbors said Mrs.
Althouse had not been at home for the past three days. One of the neighbors said a woman supposed to have done the shooting had passed back of the house.

Mrs. George took her supper as usual at a downtown restaurant at 4:45 and some time later was seen on a westbound car, and according to the motor-man's story got off at Hazlett avenue, near the Althouse home. About 9 p. m. she was arrested by the police officials and locked up. Trouble in locating her was due principally to the fact that she moved from her old home Thursday.

Mrs. George is the divorced wife of Sample C. George, who formerly was a tenant of Saxton in his downtown business block, and conducted a dress making business. Her divorce was obtained in Dakota and a proceeding later in local courts by the husband against Saxton charged that Saxton had sent her there to secure the divorce, the proceeding here being a suit for damages of the alleged alienation of the wife's affections.

This case has been through all the intermediate courts and was passed upon by the state supreme court on an inter-pleading and finally remanded for hearing on its merits here.

Before this occurred, and on Wednesday, a settlement was effected on a basis of paying George $1,825 on a claim set up of $2,000 for damages.

Mrs. George has also had several cases against Saxton, claiming the detention of furniture, the defense of Saxton being that the articles were held for overdue rent in the rooms.

Mrs. Althouse, in front of whose residence the shooting occurred, several months ago began peace proceedings against Mrs. George, alleging that her life had been threatened.

Another Proposition.

Baltimore, Oct. 8.—Al Hereford, manager of the Eureka Athletic club, is prepared to deposit a $20,000 purse for the Corbett-McCoy fight, $5,000 of it in the shape of a guarantee that he will pull off the contest. He sent telegrams to New York to George Considine, manager for Corbett, and to W.
B. Gray, who looks after the interests of McCoy, to this effect. Within an hour Considine replied: "Satisfactory to me; but McCoy does not want to fight."

About the Peace Commission.

Paris, Oct. 8.—The peace commission settled upon the points which are to be taken under consideration, but there is no settled order in which they are to be considered. Propositions have been exchanged in writing between the commissions, and each commission, in recess, will deliberate upon them. The session adjourned at 3:15 p. m. until Tuesday, Oct. 11. The preliminaries are finished.

Suspect Arrested.

London, Oct. 8.—The police arrested, near Chesham, Buckinghamshire, a man who gave his name as Thomas Alrthigh Woodward, and who is suspected of having desecrated the grave of William Penn at Jourdane Meeting House, near Chalfont St. Giles, in Buckinghamshire.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

FOR CONGRESS.
 MORDECAI WILLIAMS,
 of Boyd County.

NOTICE TO DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEEMEN.

The members of the Democratic Executive Committee of Mason County are requested to meet next Monday, Oct. 10, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the office of Thos. D. Slattery, Court street, Maysville, Ky. All members are requested to be present, as business of importance will be before said committee.

JNO. W. ALEXANDER, Chairman.
 Thos. D. Slattery, Secretary.

WHAT the Democrats of Georgia did to the Populists and Republicans this week was more than a sufficiency. Their majority over the combined opposition was 55,000—20,000 more than their majority for Governor two years ago.

MR. BILLY BYNUM, who was recently forced out of the Chairmanship of the National Democratic party's Executive Committee has gone to making speeches for the Republicans out in Iowa. That's not any worse than he has been doing, however, as the National Democrats have all along worked as aids to the Republicans.

SEPARATE COACH LAW.

The Court of Appeals Decides That It Is Constitutional.

FRANKFORT, KY., Oct. 7.—The Court of Appeals in an opinion by Judge Guffy all the judges concurring, holds the Kentucky separate-coach law constitutional.

The suit was brought in the Christian Circuit Court by Robert Lander against the Ohio Valley railroad for the purpose of testing the law, which was passed in 1893. The decision to-day is a reversal of the judgment of the lower court, and is also in opposition to the decision of Federal Judge Barr, who held it invalid.

An appeal to the Supreme Court may be taken.

Judge Guffy holds that the railroads had the right to enforce rule of furnishing separate coaches for white and colored passengers regardless of such law having been passed. The opinion concludes:

"It seems to us that the foregoing decision conclusively settles that it was the duty of the appellant to assign to the appellee a coach separate from a coach set apart for white persons. It may be true that the railroad under consideration in the case supra commenced and ended in the State of Louisiana, but we do not think that the court was at all governed by that fact.

"It is insisted for appellee that the act under consideration undertakes to regulate or control as to interstate passengers, and that portion of the statute is invalid as being in conflict with the commerce clause of the United States constitution, and that the act is inseparable; and, therefore, it must all be held invalid. We don't think that such contention is tenable. It seems to us that such contention is in conflict with the decision hereinbefore referred to of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of L. N. O. and T. Railway Company vs. State, 133 U. S., 587, and also in conflict of the well settled rules of construction. If it were conceded (which is not) that the statute is invalid as to interstate passengers, the proper construction to be given it would then be that the Legislature did not so intend it, but only intended it to apply to transportation within the State; and, therefore, it should be held invalid as to such passengers. It seems to us that a passenger taking passage in this State, and railroad companies receiving passengers in this State, are bound to obey the law in respect to this statute so long as they remain in the jurisdiction of the State."

The court bases its decision on the decision of the Louisiana and Mississippi cases, in which similar laws were upheld by the Supreme Court of the State, and subsequently by the Supreme Court of the United States.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

PUGH'S WORK.

How the Republican Congressional Nominee "Played Several Favorites."

In the Fight For the Pension Agency—The Thomas-Pugh Office-Holding Syndicate.

(Public Ledger.)

Mr. Pugh's memory needs renovating and refreshing.

What the Courier-Journal correspondent was driving at when he asked Mr. Pugh about his conversation with the President wherein he admitted his defeat this fall was an entirely different "conversation" from the one Mr. Pugh now palms off on the Courier-Journal.

It will be remembered that there was quite a spirited contest over the appointment of Pension Agent for Kentucky.

Judge M. C. Hutchins, of this city, says Mr. Pugh indorsed him for that place.

It is absolutely certain that at Mr. Pugh's personal instigation his local "Advisory Board," at his behest and in his presence, unanimously indorsed Mr. Thomas A. Davis, of this city, for the same position.

And it is true also, that immediately after this action Mr. Pugh returned to Washington, the pie triumvirate of DePugh, DeMorg and DeBow entered upon an aggressive campaign in behalf of Major Cardwell, of Winchester, urging the President to appoint him as Pension Agent!

This in spite of the fact that the President had months before given his promise to appoint Hon. Leslie Combs, of Lexington.

Finding that the President not only had the backbone but the manhood to carry out his pledge, Mr. Pugh, as a last resort, tried to impress the President by saying that "the appointment of Mr. Combs means my defeat for Congress this fall!"

Mr. Combs was appointed all the same and it is nowhere recorded that Mr. Pugh has changed his opinion.

The reader will observe that in the matter of the Pension Agency, as well as in the matter of the Assistant District Attorneyship, and all other places, Mr. Pugh played several favorites, each of whom was led to believe he was a "sure winner."

In 1892 when the Republicans of this Senatorial district met in convention to select a candidate for State Senator, Judge Pugh was chosen as their standard bearer, although he had not sought the place.—Vanceburg Sun.

What a delightful prevaricator you are, to be sure!

The Senatorial convention which nominated Mr. Pugh was held in the court house in this city on Friday afternoon, October 20, 1893, and not in 1892 as you say.

The Republicans of Mason County whose turn it was to name the candidate, had agreed upon Judge M. C. Hutchins, of Maysville, as the nominee.

On the day of the convention Mr. George Morgan Thomas and Mr. Samuel J. Pugh were early on the scene, and the nomination of Mr. Pugh was so eagerly sought that ambassadors were commissioned to get Mr. Hutchins out of the way.

Of those ambassadors, Messrs. William H. Cox, Douglass P. Ort and Thomas A. Davis made strong personal appeals to Mr. Hutchins, the latter assuring him, if he would consent to withdraw and give the field to Mr. Pugh, that he [Hutchins] should have the nomination for Representative from Mason County, which, by the way, was an empty honor.

To this proposition Mr. Hutchins finally assented, saying, "I'll do it."

This is a piece of Ninth district political history in keeping with the entire record of the Thomas-Pugh office-holding and salary-drawing syndicate.

THE THIRD AND FOURTH.

Two Kentucky Regiments Were Made Part of General Wheeler's Fourth Army Corps Friday.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The Third and Fourth Kentucky regiments will not be mustered out any time soon. That much is certain, as it begins to look like both will see service in the tropics this winter.

To-day a general order was issued organizing three new army corps and discontinuing three others. The following are the orders with the points where the troops from Kentucky and Indiana will be stationed.

The Third, Fifth and Sixth corps are discontinued; the First, Second and Fourth corps reorganized. They are to be commanded respectively by Major Generals Breckinridge, Graham and Wheeler. The headquarters of each corps will be: First corps, Macon, Ga.; Second corps, Augusta, Ga.; Fourth corps, Huntsville, Ala.

Under this organization both the Third and Fourth Kentucky regiments go under the command of Major General Wheeler, whose headquarters will be at Huntsville, Ala. The Fourth Kentucky, Colson's regiment, is placed in the second division, first brigade, of the Fourth Corps, and will be quartered at Anniston, Ala.

The Third Kentucky, which it has been expected might be mustered out soon, is assigned to the second division, first brigade, of the Fourth Army Corps, and will be encamped at Columbus, Ga.

It is expected that all the troops ordered to the Southern camps will be later sent to do garrison duty at Porto Rico or Cuba, although the Kentucky regiments may not be reached before it is found that sufficient men have been started for service in the West Indies.

PORK PACKING.

Big Increase in the Number of Hogs Slaughtered This Season—Prices a Little Lower.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, October 6.] Some enlargement in marketing of hogs is shown for the past week. Western killings reaching a total of 390,000, compared with 350,000 the preceding week, and 365,000 two weeks ago. For corresponding time last year the number was 310,000—compared with which there was an increase of 80,000 the past week. From March 1 the total is 12,280,000, against 10,515,000 a year ago—an increase of 1,765,000. Prices have averaged and close about 5c. per 100 pounds lower than the preceding week. The quality is fair to good. There are some complaints of maladies in correspondence from shipping districts, but as a rule the herds are maintaining full average conditions of health.

What is termed the summer season will close with this month, with a record which no one in the trade anticipated. The great and unprecedented number of hogs killed last year was regarded at the opening of the present summer season as not likely to be largely exceeded, but the basis of supply appears to have been larger than calculated. The January report of the Department of Agriculture suggested a moderate reduction in supply of swine in the United States compared with the preceding year, but Western packing for the ten months from January 1 to November 1 will be fully 15 per cent. greater in number than for corresponding period last year.

At Chicago, Kansas City and Omaha the total stocks of meats on October 1 were 193,000,000 pounds, compared with 244,000,000 a month ago, and 178,000,000 a year ago. The reduction the past month at these points was 51,000,000 pounds; the reduction last year for corresponding period was 42,000,000 pounds; the packing the past month in all the West has been about 250,000 hogs in excess of same time last year. This implies that a large distribution of product has been going on.

The Appointment of Receivers.

In reversing the case of J. W. Holmes, of Mt. Olivet, against Stix, Krouse & Co., of Cincinnati, the Court of Appeals says: 1. The appointment by the court of a receiver is in the nature of an extreme remedy, and a party, although a creditor, ought not to be deprived of his property and subject to the expense incident to the appointment of a receiver unless it clearly appears that the equities of the case demand it; and this rule applies with even more force to a joint owner, who is in fact not a debtor.

2. Where real estate is purchased by a firm and held as partnership property, it cannot be subjected to the debts of the individual members of the firm to the detriment of the firm creditors. The case involved an amount of over $1,200 to Mr. Holmes and he is thereby much elated over it.

FLUSH TIMES ON "WALL."

A Scene of Business Activity in the Good Old Days of the Long Ago.

The recent transfer of a warehouse on Wall street to the Washington Fire Company recalls to an old citizen the circumstances in which it was built, and the commercial prosperity of which it still stands as a solid proof. It formed part of a block of buildings erected in the "forties" by Stanislaus Mitchell, a famous builder in his day, and by a citizen of Washington, D. C., as a speculation investment in a rising town. The houses were built under the immediate supervision of Mr. Mitchell and were originally known as the "Mitchell Block"—the Maddox house having been erected subsequently and occupied as a place of business by Alexander Maddox. This block then looked out on a scene of business activity that ought to put the Maysville of this date to shame. The January cotton mill was in full blast then as now, but the site of the big three-story "City Hotel" is now occupied by an idle plow factory; the busy old tobacco warehouse now forms part of the cotton mill; the thriving grocery of George Dodson is devoted to other uses; the splendid grade which was once the landing place of the city is hopelessly out of repair, and the great steamboats which touched daily at the wharf have disappeared altogether. The Cincinnati daily packets, the Boone and the Kenton, lay at the wharf on alternate nights, and the scenes of commercial activity presented during the day, have never been paralleled since. Wall street in its full length was alive with traffic. The footways were thronged with countrymen; well-mounted horsemen threaded their way carefully through the crowded thoroughfare; and the solidly paved street from hill to river was packed with wagons from Bourbon, Fleming, Bracken and Nicholas, each patiently awaiting its turn to deliver a load of tobacco, hemp or grain. On the northwest corner of Wall and Second was Powling's Inn; just opposite was the wholesale grocery of John B. McIlvaine (later a citizen of Louisville); a few doors above was the "Parker House" kept by that amiable veteran, Uncle Buck Parker, and across the way was the well-known tobacco house of William Mooklar, and the celebrated stables of Squire Thomas Daulton, which still sustain, under the management of his son, Captain Mose, (then a slim young fellow of sixteen and as graceful a horseman as the county ever bred) the reputation which they bore in every part of the country where thoroughbred horse-flesh was known and sought. On the southwest corner of Wall and Second, stood the old theatre of the town—a large frame building of small architectural pretensions, but with attractions upon the boards such as, even with our beautiful opera house, it would be difficult to furnish at this day, granting that the world could produce again such players as the Elder Booth, Edwin Forrest and Ellen Tree. But let us hope that under the auspices of the new regime the Washington Opera House will do much to rival, if not surpass, the dramatic glories of the Wall street stage.

AN interesting relic of the destruction of the steamer Bostona by fire on Beasley's bar over thirty years ago was found this week at the scene of wreck by a West End party. It is the works of a ladies' gold watch, Elgin make, and numbered 859,426. It can be seen at Clooney's jewelry store.

"HOGAN'S ALLEY," a resort on Second street, just west of Wall,—which by the way is fast gaining a reputation,—was raided last night by Officers Wallace, Stockdale and Rosser, who gathered in a crowd of seven men and two women, and hustled them off to jail. Disorders at this place have become frequent of late, but last night they came near raising the roof, hence the raid.

Two Hundred Dollars Still Needed to Complete the Subscriptions—A New General Secretary Called.

The Board of Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association met last night, President James T. Kackley presiding. There was a full attendance, and important business affecting the welfare of the association was carefully considered. The reports of the financial canvass made this week showed that $500 in subscriptions had been received towards the $700 needed for the year's work. The directors took steps for the active prosecution of the canvass until the remainder of the amount needed is obtained, and they confidently appeal to the community to give the necessary funds to carry on the work. At the meeting Messrs. A. D. Cole and H. E. Gabby were elected members of the Board of Directors.

The directors have extended a call to Mr. W. G. T. Baker, of Missouri, to become General Secretary of the association. Mr. Baker is a graduate of the Young Men's Christian Association Training School for General Secretaries and Physical Directors at Chicago. It is hoped that the call will be accepted, and that Mr. Baker will be on the field the latter part of next week. With the advent of the new General Secretary the directors expect to resume classes in the educational and physical departments similar to those carried on last winter, and a considerable increase in membership among the young men is expected to follow.

Rev. J. O. A. Vaught, the new pastor of the M. E. Church, South, will address the young men's meeting at the association to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Miss Lawwill, of Vanceburg, will sing a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Randolph Madison.

PREACHING at the Christian Church to-morrow at 10:45 a. m. and 7 p. m. Morning subject, "An Increasing Christ," (historically considered). At night, "What it is to Be Saved." All invited.

THE WILD WEST REVIEW.

A Splendid Living Picture of Barbaric and Disciplined Warlike Equitation.

The initial feature of the performances in Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders of the World, to be given in this city on Thursday, October 13th, is the grand international equestrian review, and everybody should be seated by 2 or 3 o'clock p. m., as it comes off sharp at those hours. The following summarization from the New York Tribune gives an idea of its magnitude and attractiveness:

"From the tower the signal is given and the gate swings back. A dark-skinned, almost naked, group moves swiftly out from the heterogeneous mass—horses at a trot. With a shrill cry a band of Indian horsemen appear over the ascent. Straight and swift, like a feathered arrow, the group shoots into the open, taking its flight down the plain to where the applause is swelling. With a swoop it curves at the end, spreads like an opening fan, circles and is stretched across the plain, motionless. Another band follows, this followed by another and still another, crying shrilly, singing in thin voices or chanting mournfully. Behind them, with a splendid sweep, ride the Irish Lancers by four, leaning far over in their saddles as they turn at the end, and still with galloping horses they fall in behind the Indians. With that swift rush there come on wild Cossacks; the whooping Cowboys; the Arabs, with their streaming draperies; the Mexicans, with wide sombrero and flapping trousers; the heavier Germans; the gallant Englishman, and then the horsemen of the Sixth, with their yellow braid and plumes, the Stars and Stripes with them. By fours and sixes they have made that rapid flight along the plain, coming around in wheeling alignment at the turn, and circling like a moving wave of color until the ranks rest, one behind the other. Behind them all rides Buffalo Bill, bowing as his horse gallops with long and even stride, his long curls waving in the breeze, his hat held above his head."

It is a splendid picture then—rank after rank of horsemen from all the nations stretching across the plain, shining with steel and flame with color; tossing manes, running along the lines like wheat moving under a breeze; above them the plumes and the bright crests, and still higher, held in upstretched arms, the white flashing sabers, until at a signal the ranks melt into moving streams of color and light, the horsemen threading their way in and out past one another, circling, halting, advancing, receding, reforming by fours and sixes, trailing out in single file, moving ribbons of men and horses spangled with gleaming metal, until two long lines gallop away evenly and steadily and disappear whence they came.

Have Helped to Retard the Decline in Wool.

New York, Oct. 8.—R. G. Dun & Company, in their weekly review of trade, say: "It can do no good to disguise the fact that the large eastern advances on wool to be held for higher prices have helped to retard the natural decline in that product, of which 100 quotations by Coates Brothers of Philadelphia average 18.71 cents, against 20.83 in February last, while extraordinarily small sales—only 2,614,300 pounds for the week at the three chief markets, against 14,337,000 last year, 7,663,900 in 1896 and 7,099,800 in 1892—indicate very little demand at this time for manufacture. The truth is that demand for goods is not helped by high prices for wool."

"Wheat has been declining a little, with foreign exports somewhat more favorable as to European crops, and yet the actual shipments have been 3,556,947 bushels, flour included, for the week, against 4,468,954 bushels for the corresponding week last year. "Failures for the week have been 163 in the United States, against 212 last year, and 23 in Canada, against 29 last year."

Threatens Mayor Van Wyck.

New York, Oct. 8.—Mayor Van Wyck has received another threatening letter from General C. H. T. Collis as a result of statements made by his honor regarding the public works department under General Collis' administration. It says: "Sir—I may have been ambiguous in my communication and in order to clear up any part of it as to what may appear innuendo, I will further state that I intend to severely and publicly chastise you if you dictate any further news matter to newsgatherers unjustly reflecting upon me in any manner."

Great Strike in Paris.

Paris, Oct. 8.—The strike of the laborers has extended to nearly all the building trades, and it is feared the railroad men will join in the movement. Work on the exhibition buildings and underground railroad has completely ceased. About 60,000 men have gone out on strike, and the situation is causing consternation. The attitude of the strikers is increasingly aggressive and fights between strikers and so-called "black legs" are incessant.

Married After Killing the Old Man.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Oct. 8.—Joe McKinney eloped with the daughter of Charles Taylor, a wealthy farmer. Taylor picked up a gun, mounted a horse and started in pursuit. He overtook the couple and, the girl refusing to return, opened fire on McKinney. The latter whipped out a barker and shot the old man dead, after which the couple proceeded to this city and were married.

State Aid Can Be Had.

Springfield, Ills., Oct. 8.—Acting Governor Northcott conferred over the telephone with Sheriff Davenport of Macoupin county on the strike situation at Virdeu. The governor instructed the sheriff to suppress any lawlessness and to disarm the mob. If the sheriff is unable to perform this task, Governor Northcott instructed him to notify the governor's office and state aid will be dispatched.

Fear For the Emperor.

Berlin, Oct. 8.—The German press is much concerned over the impending journey of the emperor to Jerusalem and his two months' absence from Germany. They hold that his absence, together with that of the minister of foreign affairs, Count Von Bulow, who will accompany him, is dangerous in these unsettled times.

Played the Bucket Shop.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Carl H. Rost, cashier of the Western Stone company, has disappeared, leaving a deficit of $5,050 unaccounted for on the firm's books. Operations in bucket shops and lavish patronage of a poolroom helped him squander the company's money.

Dynamited a Hotel.

Waterbury, Conn., Oct. 8.—The entire rear of a hotel owned by William Leslie was practically destroyed by the explosion of a dynamite bomb thrown by some one unknown. Had the bomb done the work it was intended to do, it would have killed 16 people.

Will Send Two Cruisers.

Yokohama, Oct. 8.—The Japanese government will send two cruisers to Chinese waters for the protection of the subjects of Japan in China.

Respectfully submitted, H. C. SHARP, Secretary.

THE doctor may be a good old man, but even so, medical examinations and the "local-application" treatment are abhorrent to every modest woman. They are embarrassing—often useless. They should not be submitted to until everything else has been tried. In nine cases out of ten, there is no reason for them. In nine cases out of ten, the doctor in general practice isn't competent to treat female diseases. They make a branch of medicine by themselves. They are distinct from other ailments. They can be properly understood and treated only by one who has had years of actual practice and experience in this particular line. This is true of Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a remedy for all derangement of the reproductive organs of women, has been in actual use for more than thirty years. It cures every form of "female weakness."
